

SAM GILLIAM

As an instructor for the Department of Human Communication and Theatre at Trinity, and a member of Actors' Equity Association, Sam's career in the professional theatre and arts education spans close to 40 years. A passionate advocate for the arts, Sam regularly performs for conferences and spiritual retreats throughout the United States. Of great joy is her partnership and collaboration as a visual artist with her husband, Steve, in their theatrical design company, SLG Design & Creative Talent. The Gilliams' scenic design for their fourth national tour of FIDDLER ON THE ROOF is currently playing the USA and Canada.
